

IN THE ABSTRACT:

1 Please amend the abstract as follows:

2 "A user-friendly Mobile Pet Food Storage Container is ~~shown~~disclosed. The 3 container has a movable platform for placing bagged or loose pet food thereon. The height 4 of the platform raises or lowers, depending upon the quantity of food remaining on the 5 platform. The container further has wheels and a retractable handle such that it can be 6 conveniently transported. Still further, the container has at least one tray extendable from 7 the front of the container that is further capable of being foldably stowed. Finally, the 8 container has a pocket extending from a side wall of the container."
